

NCR REGISTRATION · FOR NEW LENDERS

Get NCR-registered.

Starting a lending business? We help you register, then set you up.

In South Africa, anyone who lends money or sells on credit (cash loans, microlending, furniture or car sales on account) must be registered with the National Credit Regulator (NCR) before offering credit.

THE PROCESS

1. Enquire. Tell us you want to register as a credit provider.
2. We check your documents and tell you if anything is missing.
3. Your application is submitted through our registration partner, and we track it.
4. Once registered, you receive a copy of your certificate and we can set you up on VantiPay.

WHAT YOU NEED

- ✓ Company registration documents (CoR 14.3)
- ✓ Bank confirmation letter
- ✓ Fingerprint / police clearance for directors
- ✓ Certified ID copies of directors
- ✓ Company share certificate
- ✓ SARS registration letter or tax clearance

Tip: police clearance for directors can be obtained faster via PostNet than at a police station.

PRICING

Clear pricing, no surprises.

NCR Registration

R3,925.00

Total. R1,800 of this is the NCR's application fee; the balance covers the accounting officer, administration and tracking your application.

Add-on package

R550.00

Company registration, tax certificate or tax clearance, and company share certificate, all three together.

Optional physical documents, R250 courier: includes NCR stickers, payable only once the certificate has been issued. You receive a copy of your certificate either way.

Right: an example of an issued NCR certificate (details blurred).
